Submission deadline for next issue:

Assembling date:

March 27, 2008

Dear Christ Church Unity,

This month we celebrate Easter on March 23, a date which seems very early in our climate! Anyone who desires to is invited to share an Easter flower for the sanctuary that day. In preparation, Rev. Eleanor will lead a service on Good Friday afternoon, March 21, at 3:00p.m., for about one hour. This will be on the theme of letting go and allowing the Divine to transform our lives into love and freedom. I wish you all a holy time of inner preparation for Easter.

As I write this there is much work going on behind the scenes to prepare for our Annual Meeting on March 2nd. The chairs of all the committees and ministries in the church are preparing, or have prepared, written reports which you will receive at the Annual Meeting. These reports offer you an opportunity to familiarize yourself with all that goes on here, and how you might become more involved. All our ministries could welcome additional people who are looking for a way to give something back. The Annual Meeting is open to both members and non-members. We will put any extra meeting folders on the front counter where you can take them and see the reports if you are not able to attend.

Also at the Annual Meeting we shall be electing two new trustees, to fill the places vacated by outgoing trustees P.J. Trahan and Sue Giannavola, whose terms have ended. I am grateful to Sue and P.J. for their love and dedication to our church, which they have expressed according to their special talents. May you receive back one hundredfold! Thankfully they will both still be here, participating in other capacities.

I was happy to welcome six new members at our Membership Ceremony on February 17. Their names are listed on page 4.

Our next social event is the popular St. Patrick's Day dinner, which will be held this year on Friday, March 14. Tickets are $15 and reservations are available after the service on Sunday mornings. March 9 is the deadline for reservations. Dinner will be traditional Irish fare, and Sylvia Barker will entertain us with her storytelling. There will also be door prizes. You can sign up at the front counter to help set up, serve, and clean up. I encourage you to take advantage of this opportunity for informal fun and getting to know people better. Reach out to others and welcome those who are new.

Another important event this month is our New Horizons presentation to the congregation on March 30th. The NH team will share the survey report received from the outside company which developed and scored the Thriving Churches Inventory. This survey was filled out on February 3rd and 10th by approximately 95 people here. I encourage you to stay after the service March 30th for this special opportunity to find out what other people are really thinking about our church, where our strengths are, and where we could improve. The NH group will make lunch available; please sign up ahead.

I thank all of you for your continued interest and active support of Christ Church Unity. May the beauty and Truth of the teachings continue to build you up and strengthen you.

Every Easter blessing,
Rev. Eleanor

Teachings in Truth

The Meaning of the Cross

The cross is the symbol of Christianity, and sooner or later every Christian must come to grips with it. In New Thought we teach that the cross symbolizes the place in consciousness where earth and heaven meet. It is the place where error is crossed out and good (God) is revealed.

In the scripture account of the crucifixion of Jesus, we see that all the male disciples except John have fled, and only the women followers are standing at the foot of the cross. The women in scripture symbolize the feeling nature, or the soul, or subconscious mind, of each person. This part of the story shows us that, in facing limitation, we feel that our "powers" have left us (the twelve disciples standing for the twelve powers). We feel powerless on the human level to overcome some sorrow or limitation. However, John represents love, and this one power is still there.

Jesus gives his soul over to Love, symbolized by giving his mother to John to take care of. Since the powers of outer action are not present at this moment, the story also shows us that overcoming is basically an internal matter, taking place within one's own soul.

In the experience of powerlessness we have the opportunity for surrender. The difference between the surrender which leads to death and the surrender which leads to life is, what Jesus said just before he died: "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit." This statement was his act of faith that our loving God was there all the time, and that good would be the final outcome, despite negative appearances.

In scientific prayer, or affirmative prayer, which we teach in Unity, we have the crucifixion in miniature. In affirmative prayer we look at the negative appearance (sin, sickness, lack) and we know:

- This so-called evil is not the Truth of God nor the Truth of my real Self. Only the Good is True.
- I love the good and have faith in the good; I accept the good now (the unity of the soul with Love).
- I surrender to this process of turning death into life by allowing my mind to be changed in how I see my situation and how I feel about it.
- I accept the goodness of God to be revealed in my life. God ("the Father") is the source of this power, not my human ego.
- The "hands" of the Father means, what God will do in this situation. I entrust myself to the action of a loving God.

Scripture scholars have revealed that Jesus never said, "O God, why have you abandoned me?" What he actually said was, "O God, this is what I was born for. I have fulfilled my destiny!" Not to be martyred, but to entrust himself totally to God/Good, no matter what.

In his teaching, Jesus said, "If anyone wants to be my disciple, let him take up his cross and follow me." This tells us two things:

1. "his" cross implies that we each have our own destiny, or overcoming work, to accomplish. It seems to be different for each of us.
2. Jesus knew that his disciples were capable of doing the same thing that he was doing. Jesus has faith in you, in your ability to cross out negativity. "My disciples will do even greater things than I have done."

In the Piscean Age, Christians identified with the suffering of Jesus and saw it as holy to deliberately embrace suffering. In the Aquarian Age where we are now, Christians are called to embrace and imitate the Resurrection of Jesus. This is done by total reliance on Omnipresence, the One Power, acting in and through your mind (scientific prayer). Jesus rose on the third day, which shows that this overcoming is achieved after some darkness on the material plane. God is with you in the times of darkness.

How blessed we are, that this Easter teaching is ours to accept and live! "The children of God shout for joy!"

Easter joy to you,
Rev. Eleanor

Message From the Board...

All About Drumming

As some of you already know, a new activity has been started at CCU, a group called "Drum Joy" or what is commonly referred to as a drumming circle. We first gathered on Saturday, January 26th from 1 to 3 PM and will have met again on February 23rd. In March we will meet on Thursday the 27th at 7 PM. Subsequent months we will meet on the last Thursday of the month at 7 PM. One of the dictionary definitions of a drumming circle is:

Typically, people gather to drum in drum "circles" with others from the surrounding community. The drum circle offers equality because there is no head or tail. It includes people of all ages. The main objective is to share rhythm and get in tune with each other and themselves. To form a group consciousness. To entrain and resonate. By entrainment, I mean that a new voice, a collective voice, emerges from the group as they drum together.

There is no audience.

Everyone is part of the musical experience.

There is no rehearsal.

The music does not come from reading notes on a sheet of music written in the past. It is improvised in the moment.

There is no right or wrong.

The drum circle is a safe, permissive explorational environment.

There is no teacher.

Instead, the drum circle is lead by a facilitator who has a dual focus; to build the musicality of the group while also building the sense of community and connection.

It is inclusive. Everyone is welcome; all ages and all levels of ability.

Spontaneity thrives.

There really is no plan except the importance of supporting the music and community connection.

Typically you will be able to experience:

- Fun
- Self-expression

- Stress reduction
 - Social interaction and community building
 - Exercise for mind, body, and spirit
 - Camaraderie and support
 - Multi-generational family activity
- Develop key musical skills; such as rhythmicity, improvisation, and ensemble. Join us the next time we meet on March 27th at 7 PM; facilitated by Matt Mantione.

Highlights from the Board Meeting

The date of the Annual Meeting is Sunday, March 2, 2008. Two new Board trustees will be elected and a new Bylaw Ministry Committee will also be formed. Bob Gajewski offered to chair the new committee. P.J. Trahan offered to be on the committee.

Six new members joined the church in February, Bruce Benton, Dory Braun, Harriet Cottrell, Sandy Holly, Jean Mantel and Mary Richardson. We extend a big welcome to all of them.

Rev. Eleanor conducted a training class with the whole Prayer Team in February. Two new people are in training to be on the Prayer Team.

April 20th has been designated as Volunteer Recognition day. Several suggestions were made about how we should acknowledge our valuable volunteers. The first meeting to form a committee was February 24th. Various ideas about how to make that day special were discussed in great length at the meeting.

The Financial Prosperity Committee presented the 2008 budget to the committee chairs on February 17th.

Respectfully submitted,
Marie Hedrick

Youth Education

The Sunday school is always looking for interested, caring adults who would like to work with our children. For information contact Marna Rossi.

You Can Heal Your Life

Louise Hay is a New Thought minister, healer, teacher, author and publisher. She has influenced the New Thought and New Age movements as few people have. In March, CCU will offer two showings of this film about Louise and the healing principles she has taught. Prominent contemporary spiritual teachers also appear. Those who wish can stay for discussion after the 85 minute film. We have the expanded edition of the film and can make available at a later date(s) another three hours of material from other speakers, if there is interest. Please see the flyer on the back of the calendar for dates and times. We recommend you take advantage of this opportunity.

Recycle Now!! – Help green the planet and prosper our church. Please bring in your used printer cartridges and old cell phones and place them in the large container in the bookstore area. There is a brochure which describes the benefits of this program and how you can extend it even further to help both the environment and Christ Church Unity.

Support Team

A support team is being formed to help an ailing inmate at Collins Correctional Facility located in Erie County NY. If you would like to provide transportation to the facility or support in other ways, please see Jane Faust, Thomas Warfield or Jeanne Noce.

St. Patrick's Dinner

Calling all Irish and Irish at heart—CCU's St. Patrick's dinner will be Friday, March 14 at 6:30 PM. Cost is $15 for adults; $6 children; a vegetarian meal option is available. Tickets are on sale Sundays before and after service. Deadline for reservations is Sunday, March 9. Leprechauns needed to help with set up, take down and clean up before and after the dinner. A sign up sheet is on the front counter.

CCU Fundraiser

Hallie Sawyers and Helen Lutz of our church have offered to present a workshop on aromatherapy on April 6 to benefit the church. This will be an introductory workshop where participants will be shown how to make their own blend of essential oils to take home and use for therapeutic purposes. The class materials have been donated, and extra oils will be available for sale, also to benefit the church. Please see the flyer in this newsletter with the details. The $30 fee for the 3 hour program includes $25 for the workshop (a significant discount) and $5 for lunch. The public is invited. Thank you, Helen and Hallie!

Friday's Angels will not meet in March. An April date will be announced.

Library News

A call for overdue library materials. Please return any books or tapes that have been out for more than 2 months. Many items have been out for quite a bit longer than that and someone else may be waiting or benefit from the material. Also, please let Sylvia Barker know if the book or tape has been lost or damaged.

NEW HORIZONS (Ministry Action Plan Committee) By Donna Ries

The church survey has been completed. We are in great appreciation for all who contributed to this effort. Approximately 100 were submitted, with several offering added comments as well. The committee will meet in a teleconference on Mar. 15 with the Survey analysts to review the results which will then be reported to the congregation at a general meeting on Sunday, Mar. 30 following the Sunday service. A light lunch will be provided by the great chefs of New Horizons. So, please mark your calendar to attend, listen, (sing Happy Birthday to Rev. Eleanor) and offer your comments. While a core group of individuals will be developing the Strategic Action Plan, it truly is a full church project and your input is a vital part to this process. Please join us to help make this a valuable tool in moving forward.

Fun Club

The Fun Club offers the opportunity to socialize with church members outside of church. Activities have included movies, attending art exhibits and going to concerts. If you would like to participate—simply fill out the interest indicator located on the front counter and turn it in to Sylvia Barker in the Library. You should also see Sylvia if you would like to know what activities are coming up or have suggestions for future outings.

Lost and Found

We have a lost and found box above the rack where the choir robes are. Please see if these treasures belong to you

From a peaceful heart, I am contributing to the harmony in my world.
